A four-vehicle accident Monday afternoon at the corner of Davis and Clatsop totaled three vehicles and sent several people to the hospital for treatment and one for hospitalization.

Ellie Brunson of Elba was hospitalized at the local hospital after his 1968 Chevrolet slammed into a 1972 Buick which in turn hit a 1973 Mark IV Lincoln, knocking it into a log truck. The three cars were totaled and the log truck

Witnesses at the scene said Brunson appeared to have his head down on the steering wheel when his car hit the stopped cars. The police report indicated that Brunson was travel-

Those taken to the hospital included Brunson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bowden, Saline, California, Mrs. Nell Bowden, Opp; Cecil Bruce Bowden, Sanford, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adcock, Boyse, Texas. Mr. Dyess, driver of the log truck, was unhurt.

The Elba City Council met Tuesday night in a meeting postponed from one week earlier, to Mayor Folger's home, to discuss the city's trip to the League of Municipalities meeting in Montgomery. All members were present.

"I don't want to get into gossip," Wise then said that if he ever had any of these people in the mayor's presence, he was going to give him (the mayor) the chance to tell them that face to face.

Also approved by the council was the purchase of a new fire truck.

A total of eleven citizens were present to make various appeals to the council. Also present were City Clerk Jack Prescott, Police Chief M. W. Johnston and Recreation Director I. F. (Bunny) Dunaway. The meeting started at 7:30 p. m. and continued until 10:30 p. m. The council was turning the question over to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Powell for the summer, changing the previous arrangement of the recreation director operating it and hire people to work. The Powells will operate the pool on a percentage basis, with the City getting 25% of the

Establishing a recreation board lasted fifteen minutes and ended with the board being appointed after being voted down once. At the end of the meeting a heated exchange was the result of Councilman Jimmy Wise asking why an investment of $40,000 was being made. Johnston said the mayor was aware of the meeting, and had approved its being in Elba. Folsom said the expenditure was illegal, and Johnston would have to repay the city for the money. Johnston said he would do this. The council, however, would not. The council then approved the action wanted to give for maintenance. Approving this were Councilmen John W. Sharpless and D. M. English and Mayor Folsom. Opposing were Councilmen Mike Russell, Jimmy Wise and Celo Hawkins. The three opposing the action wanted to give

Speaker at the Elba Rotary Club Monday was retired Hal Bennett of Graceville, Florida. Mr. Bennett is a Baptist preacher, and says he has been around Elba enough to kind of know the people of the community. He also says a speaker should change a speech to fit the listeners. If possible, with that, he proceeded to discuss the character of a mule - any mule - and some actual cases of the classic stubbornness associated with this beast of burden. It was soon obvious that most of the listeners could identify with the mule problems. This being the rural South, and many of the members grew up when the mule was the main source of farming and logging. No one doubted any of the numerous stories Bennett told about the mule.

This week is Secretary's Week (along with other things) and locally it appears that only School Superintendent Elmer Taylor acknowledged the fact. He had as his guests at Rotary Monday both the secretaries in his office. They were also wearing rose buds on their dresses and this fit well with the guest speaker who is a leading rose grower in the South. More credit should be given to secretaries, because without them, many efficient operators would collapse in confusion.

It should be duly noted that this newspaper completely ignored the changing of the clocks last weekend. It was our opinion that with our track record of changing on the wrong date, turning the clock in the wrong direction, and in general messing up an already confusing situation, it was best if we just stay out completely! For those of you who are still as confused as us, remember to "Spring forward" and fall backwards.

The group that is working for development of the Appalachicola, Chattahoochee and Flint Waterway is headquartered in Dothan. We would like to see the group's efforts and could use their help in possibly developing our own river system. This is especially important in this time when saving energy is the name of the game.

For me to say my fishing results were moderately successful this spring would be a typical fisherman's tale, "cause I ain't been successful at all. Also, last week I began to feel a little guilty at missing church too often and canceled a planned trip and went to church Sunday. I even helped pass the collection plate as Methodists are so well-known for using. Getting in that much action, and saying I would have gone back Sunday night if services had not been canceled, put me in pretty good shape for a few days (in my mind anyway).

I was asked why I was in church Sunday instead of fishing. After telling this "friend" of my limited success fishing, I explained with a smile that I was just trying to get some powerful help. Well, the result was not instant. The weather is cool, the Walk-A-Thon Saturday afternoon needs photographing and Elba Tractor is having open house at their new lawn mower shop Saturday. All of this means I will probably look at the fish pictures next week and think of how many I would have caught if...

The Elba Chamber of Commerce is now working, and has set a membership dues structure. One day this week I received a phone call from someone out of town asking how much the dues were. This firm had been reading our reports on the chamber and wanted to join. Quickly this friend was told where to send his check and when the next meeting would be. Ye old editor was named to work on the membership committee and this membership will work on my pile (if anyone wants to run a race).

SAFE BIKE LIGHTS AND WHEN TO USE THEM

By Chief M. W. Johnston

One of the most important things to remember about safe biking is that your bicycle MUST have proper lighting if you ride it after dark. This may not seem important to the person on the bicycle, but is very important to the people driving automobiles because the only way automobiles drivers can see someone on a bike at night is if the bike has lights. If you have ever ridden in your parents' car at night, and come upon a person on a bicycle that did not have a light, you will remember that it is practically impossible to see the bike until you are almost on top of it. If you ride without a headlight or proper rear red reflector, the chances of being hit by a car are very high!

Standard lighting for every bicycle should be a headlamp on the front of the bike, pointing straight ahead, which can be seen from a distance of 300 feet. Also, a red reflector on the rear of the bike is essential and should be visible from 300 feet behind the bike. It is always best to have a lighted RED light on the rear of the bike, in addition to the red reflector. No other colored light, except red, should be displayed on the rear of the bike.

Since your bicycle is usually out in all kinds of weather, the batteries in your bike lights should be removed about once each week, and wiped clean of dampness, dirt and corrosion. Batteries deteriorate very rapidly if not kept clean and dry. While the batteries are out

A red light is the only colored light which should be on the front of your bike. Yes. No colored clothing when riding at night. Never, under any circumstances, carry a passenger on your bicycle after dark. This makes the bike much more difficult to control, and cuts down on your ability to respond quickly to an emergency situation on the street or highway.

S. Department of Agriculture's Economic Research Service (ERS). Values increased from 5 to 36 percent in 45 states and stayed the same in three states.

Here in Alabama values averaged 6 percent more than in February 1976, said Mrs. Wynne G. Lassiter, Coffee County ASCE Executive Director.

Six Corn Belt and Lake States led the value rise. Average acre prices rose from one-quarter to over one-third. Illinois' rise, 36 percent, topped all other states. Iowa, Indiana and Ohio all had increases of over 30 percent. Farm enlargement pushed values most in the Corn Belt.

Two Lake States, Michigan and Minnesota, had increases of over one-quarter. Farm enlargement led all reasons, followed by purchases of land for homes and recreation.

Weather and low wheat prices were most often cited by real estate reporters as factors affecting land prices in the Northern Plains, where percentage increases in land values fell mostly in the low teens. In some communities, farmers and ranchers are willing to sell land to pay off debts, but buyers are wary of present market prices.

area pest management specialist, will be working in several counties this spring and summer giving direct leadership to the program. Weeks said, "Primarily the scout will be checking peanuts weekly for insects, diseases and nematode damage. He will be checking early for the corn stalk borer, southern corn rootworm or any soil inhabiting pest."

For the lesser corn stalk borer the recommendation is Parathion granules at 30 pounds broadcast or Diflate. Diflate is a fairly new material and is not being widely used at present. Parathion is normally put on at peeing time, but in general we don't recommend putting it on until sufficient populations are found. Usually, the first signs of the pest are in the runner. Early in the season if it is dry, they will attack the runners and killing results. You will see little dead areas in the peanuts.

The southern corn rootworm seems to be increasing in area of Alabama. We are finding some in corn now. In peanuts it feeds on the pod. It is strictly a soil inhabiting pest. It doesn't destroy limbs like other insects but feeds on the pod. It eats the kernel later in the season anytime from when peanuts begin to peg down and the first pegs develop. In general the southern corn rootworm is confined to moist, wet areas in a field. It is usually found in heavier soils. About the only indication you will have is when you pull up the plants you will have damage to the pod. It is a real severe infestation, you can get some above ground wilting or stunting. Generally you won't see any symptoms on the top. It will only be recognized by the damage it does underground. This is one indication of the scouting program. Unless a farmer pulls up peanuts regularly, he would find this pest. The scout would find this situation. Our recommendation for rootworms is Parathion or Diflate, both granular materials. Follow the label carefully.

Both the lesser corn stalk borer and the southern corn rootworm occur generally in the low different type situations. The lesser corn stalk borer occurs in dry seasons in sandy soils. The southern corn rootworm occurs in wet fields and heavy soils.

4-H News

Hello from Mrs. Patton's 5th grade 4-Hers. We first said the pledge led by Kathy Tucker. Then we sang Alabama, led by Crystal Caldwell and Tina Thigpen. Next Mrs. Carpenter handed out the ribbons for the vest making contest. First place Stephanie Smith, 2nd place Kathy Tucker and 3rd place Gina Donaldson. Then Mrs. Carpenter handed our record book. We won't know who won until Friday. Then we played a game led by Tiffany Harper and Kathy Coleman.

KINSTON 4-H

The meeting was called to order at 1:07 on Wednesday, April 13, 1977. The flag was saluted. The roll was called by Miss Lassiter. Old and new business was discussed.

The 4-H rally is to be held at the New Brockton Farm Center on May 13.

Farm Facility Loan Program Expanded

In a move designed to increase on-farm storage and drying facilities, Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland has relaxed requirements and expanded government assistance under the farm facility loan program.

According to Rolan Day, several changes in the program should allow more Coffee County farmers to participate in the program and to build larger storage facilities than before. Under the new program a farmer can borrow up to $50,000 on two years' crops with 15 percent down and 7 percent interest. The maximum loan amount under the old program was $25,000 on one year's crop, with 30 percent down and 7 1/2 percent interest. In addition, the cost of cement and electrical wiring, formerly excluded, is now eligible under the program.

Any owner, landlord, tenant or sharecropper may be eligible if they meet the county, state and federal requirements. Day said. They must grow one or more of the following crops: Corn, Sorghum, Wheat, Soybeans and peanuts.

For more information about government farm facility loans, contact the county ASCE office or a member of the county ASCE committee.

Current information is used to compile a history for the field. Then the next time the grower plants peanuts, he knows the field has a history of white mold. Control materials for white mold must be put out 50-75 days after planting.

The scouts will also make leafspot counts to determine if the fungicide they are using is giving maximum effectiveness. If resistance develops to the fungicide used, the scout will check on methods of application, rates, etc.

When peanuts first begin to peg, nematode samples are taken in the row to determine if the nematodes are present. These primarily attack the pegs who navigate it on a shoreless sea for a long period of time. The people who "myth" the boat in Noah's day, "myth"ed everything.

Now if David had "myth"ed Goliath with his stone, there would not be much history of Israel to record. Goliath was very real as he brandished his mammoth spear and terrified every Israelite except David. His vile oaths rent the air and his savage threats caused the armies of Israel to reel backward without encounter.

Goliath rattled his saber, flashed his shield, and clattered his armor as he hurled vile insults and blasphemous curses at the hosts of Israel when David approached him. David met the Philistine giant in the Name of the Lord and soon the giant was slain. I am glad David did not "myth" the mark at which he aimed.

Now these people seem to have mythed the Virgin Birth also. No doubt they thought they must have mythed the angels too. No doubt they thought the shepherds and the Wise Men also. A little later they seem to have mythed the resurrection. The further you probe this interpretation, the more it becomes obvious that it only leads to "myth-understanding" the Bible.

That is the trouble when you discount the inspired revelation of the miraculous creation in Genesis. You have no place to stop. If man decides that the Bible account of creation is a myth, then man becomes the judge of the Book instead of being judged by the Book. There is a dangerous fallacy in the wisdom of man. "The world by wisdom knew not God" (1 Cor. 1:21).

It is better to be simple and safe than to be worldly wise and be lost. If the Virgin Birth is a myth, then salvation is too. But millions of people have experienced salvation and the evidence is all around us in transformed lives of believers. Those who mythed the ark drowned. Those who mythed the Savior forgot eternal life. Be sure you do not "myth" it!

The afternoon service will begin at 2 p.m. with Rev. Randy Hatcher, pastor of the church, as the guest speaker. The climax of the day will be the regular Sunday night service.

Jimmy and Shirley Hatcher, pastors of the church, say, "We enjoy working in this city more than words can express. We give credit for our progress in the past nine years, first, to our Great God, and then to the wonderful people like we have in Elba to work with."

"We recall that in January of 1968 we felt a great burden to erect a church in Elba. On our first trip to the plot of land where the church is now located, all we could see was huge weeds and shrubs, some of them standing at least six feet high."

"With a few but faithful workers the church was ready for its first service in May of the same year."

"Since the first service nine years ago, the church has purchased adjoining land, added a paved parking lot, a fellowship hall, enlarged the Sunday School department, bricked the church, carpeted the floors,

AGRIBUSINESS

Send Beggarweed Packing

With new Amiben/Premerge 3* tank mix for peanuts.

This season send Florida beggarweed packing. Packing right out of your peanut fields. With a brand new tank mix that really does the job.

It's Amiben/Premerge 3. Now registered for use in the state of Alabama, on Alabama-grown peanut crops. Tests show it's the first really effective solution to the spreading beggarweed problem.

And what a solution. Amiben controls germinating weeds and grasses while Premerge 3, a contact herbicide, quickly burns seedling weeds that have already germinated and are just emerging. It's a "one-two" punch that knocks down beggarweeds. And keeps them down.

In one grower trial, Amiben/Premerge 3 gave 98% control compared to 60% with another tank mix.

Amiben/Premerge 3 is easy to use. Apply at "cracking time" when your oldest peanut plants reach the two-leaf stage. Or when the first weeds become visible. Check label for correct rates and complete mixing instructions.

This season, don't let Florida beggarweed get the best of your peanuts. Get the best of them with new Amiben/Premerge 3 tank mix. See your dealer and order your supply today. Order early and be sure to get enough to protect your entire allotment.

"Seeking Beauty"

Life is seeking beauty in so many ways, a person changes as he reaches a higher stage. The wisdom and knowledge a person has, puts him in his very own class.

The stages of life are so new, the beauty of seeking it is sought by few.

In time of need, you sometimes plead, "I really need you."

A boy and girl who find each other, sometimes have pain in which they suffer.

This living beauty can be shared, by two people who love each other and become a pair.

This beauty is hard to find, which includes people who are kind.

Then a person comes along, to find this beauty for his own. To hope you can find and in your mind, the love and care of this beauty.

Brainshowers

Another prom is over and everyone has gotten over all of the headaches that go with it. The prom designates that the school year is coming to an end, but it seems like only last week we were going to football games. Oh, well, we've had a good year anyway, so why fret about it, let's just be glad we were able to be here to enjoy it.

Band day will be coming up soon. We should all try to support the band anyway that we can. We're all proud when the band goes to contests, and receive good ratings, they represent the town, but more so, they represent good old EHS.

I would like to add pers. note on behalf of the Jun. Class. On the Wednesday before the prom Friday, someone got into the gym and damaged a huge picture that was being painted. Fortunately, we were able to repair it fairly well. The person or persons responsible for this are only immature little brats. I hope whoever did the damage reads this and would realize how they would feel if they had worked nearly 7 hours just drawing something only to have it ruined. Well, goody - goody, we fixed it anyway!

Congratulations

Congratulations to the Symphonic Band for receiving all superior ratings at the State Contests in Tuscaloosa.

Roses Elba Abounds With Roses

Dr. and Mrs. McCreary look over a number of their varieties of roses.

"I Never Promised You a Rose Garden," but look what we have in Elba - rose gardens.

Dr. and Mrs. V. D. McCreary have their usual array of gorgeous roses growing in their yard.

The McCrearys recently attended, and entered for the first time, a rose show held in Dublin. They came away with 6 awards having taken 14 blooms to show.

Their roses placed in the "Princess" category, out of a listing of King, Queen, Princess and Prince. Prizes and awards were as follows:

1st prize, blue ribbon - "First Prize" (name of rose), and a silver tray, "Mary Kittell," and a crystal vase, "Garden Party," "Cherry Vanilla," "Peace."

2nd prize, red ribbon - "Alabama," 3rd prize, yellow ribbon - "White Masterpiece," Honorable Mention - white ribbon - "Sea Shell," and "Confidence."

The McCrearys work with their roses throughout the year, as they require constant care. They take them to the church, nursing home, and various other places, as well as giving them to friends.

They are planning to attend another show in Chipley, Florida, this Saturday and Sunday, April 30 and May 1, to be held at the Holmes-Washington Vocational School, which is open to the public. Times are 2-5 on Saturday, and 2-4 on Sunday.

Mrs. Eirene Poole's roses are as beautiful as the roses in her yard. They are displayed on each side of her driveway, as well as other places in her yard.

Eirene was given a trip to the Thomasville, Georgia Rose Show last Saturday as a birthday present from her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Ross Poole.

She takes many of her flowers to her friends at work, church, the hospital, etc. "I love to share my roses with others," she said, "and I do enjoy working with them."

Sports

By: Ricky Mulaz Sports Editor

I'm running a little bit late this week, so I'm going to cut this week's column a little bit short!

THE PRESSBOX

SOFTBALL IN FULL SWING

Softball is totally dominating the local sports scene with 14 games being played each week. The men play on Monday and Friday nights at the Recreation Center while the women play on Tuesday and Thursday nights behind the school.

The Men's League is proving to be well balanced, with four (4) teams appearing to have a solid shot at the league title. The Peoples Bank has a young ballclub that hits the ball extremely well, and runs the bases with lightning quick speed. The Bankers have two long-ball hitters in David Smith and Mickey Marler, and boast a stable of good hitters. On defense, the Bankers have a quick outfield, but do have a tendency to give up a lot of runs late in the game. The Peoples Bank is "The Team To Beat."

The surprise team in the league is Dorsey Trailers. Dorsey doesn't have a team filled with individual stars, but they do have a "Team" in every sense of the word. Dorsey has an adequate defense that doesn't look good, but has proven to be the strongest team in the league. On offense, Dorsey base-hits the ball as well as anyone. The Trailers don't leave runners on base, and run the bases well. Look for Dorsey to be near the top at the end of the season.

Cook Chevrolet has a good club that seems to play good only when they have too. Cook's has a "suspect" defense, but has an explosive offense that can score a dozen runs in any inning. Cook's has a home-run hitter in Doug Lee, and I'm looking for Cook to battle for the top spot!

Wise's has a good team that reminds me of a sleeping giant getting ready to wake-up and crush the poor pussies. Maybe I'm wrong, but I think Wise's has more talent than any team in the league. The "Men in Green" have long knockers in Larry Sanders, Jack Holley, and Wayne Suley, and have speedsters who can get on in front of the big sticks. If Wise's ever puts it all together, "WATCH OUT!"

Nasco and New Brockton could be spoilers, but I don't think either squad will challenge for the league crown. However, I have been wrong before and could be again.

The Women's League is also well balanced, with at least five (5) teams having a shot at the crown.

At the top of the list is perennial power - "The Victoria Blues." The Blues don't seem as strong this year as in the past, but keep on winning and will always be near the top.

The "surprise team" in the Women's League is Auto Sav. The Swingers are made up of mostly high school girls, with a couple of "not-so old timers" thrown in (mid 20's). These same girls got roughed up last year when they played under a different name, but this year they're repaying their opponents by running up lopsided wins. In the season's opening three games, Auto Sav has outscored their "Victims" 72-21. Auto Sav could be "The Team To Beat" in their league.

New Brockton returns a solid club, and are probably the favorites to win the title. If these girls can improve as the season progresses they could be a fine club.

The Victoria Reds and the Jewel Box also have good teams, and both are capable of beating anyone on any given night. The "other 4" teams aren't weak, but right now they just don't seem ready to challenge for the title. The other teams are Black Sheep, Dorsey Darlings, National Security, and the Misfits.

If I said earlier, my picks could be wrong, but then again, they probably won't!

GEORGE LINDSEY WEEKEND
Kathy and I went to Montgomery last Sunday to watch the George Lindsey Celebrity Golf Tournament, and we came back with sore feet and sunburned faces.

We picked up my brother, Randy and his wife, Janet, and the four of us must have walked 15 miles. However, we got to see a lot of celebrities, and a whole lot of golf.

The highlights of the day were seeing: (1) Billy Barty, a midwest actor, pole a 60-yard drive and then complain about coming off the ball; (2) George "Goofy" Lindsey top a fair way wood and say he hurt his back; (3) Charlie Fierap slap his putter after missing a putt and hugging his hand; (4) hearing Coach Doug Bartfield tell his partner "Get on up there" and last, but not least, seeing Barbara Mandrell.

If you didn't make it last weekend, you should make plans to attend next year. It's a very enjoyable day!

IN CLOSING
They had a long driving contest in Enterprise last weekend and my old buddy, David Smith, won 1st prize with a wallop of 330 yards. David has a smooth swing and now everyone knows how far he can hit that little white ball.

Opp managed only 2 hits in the sixth inning, but took advantage of numerous Elba errors to score 4 runs and put the game out of reach.
